without The Sunday Star at 44 cents per month.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1908-TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES. TWO CENTS. No. 17,533.

ANOTHER BUMP FOR HE'S WRITING A ROAST GOVERNOR HASKELL Bryan's Answer to Roosevelt

Judge Woodruff Discusses Prairie Oil Company Case.

Throws Hot Shot Into Late Democratic Treasurer.

SAYS HE TRIFLED WITH LAW

Nothing to Show That President Roosevelt Ever Had Anything to Do With Pipe Line Case.

day gave out a statement concernthrough Indian lands in Oklahoma. The records of this devery clearly that Secretary Hitchstruction of pipe lines, and that also have a paragraph or two about T. nowhere is there any record or Coleman du Pont, who has just severed his connection with the republican naat any time either overruled Mr. tends to caten up on an issues and contentions in the document that he is pre-Hitchcock or was at variance with paring. him in the course he pursued in the issuance of these permits.

The so-called Prairie Cil Company boomerang has circled and returned, and with a resounding whack has hit the official treasurer of the democratic national comhead of Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma.

The papers in the case were sent for this morning by Assistant Secretary of the Interior Pierce, who went over them with Judge George W. Woodruff, assistant attorney general for the Interior De-

Statement of the Case. After a careful perusal Judge Woodruff gave to The Star the following state-

"With reference to the recent contention about Gov. Haskell's action in the case of the Prairie Oil and Gas Company's oil pipe line in Oklahoma and the action of former Secretary of the Inthe exact points at issue and the exact facts concerning them, so far as they are known from the records of the Department of the Interior.

"Congress on March 11, 1904, passed a law providing for the granting of pipe line privileges in the then Indian Territory, now a part of the state of Oklahoma.

"The Secretary of the Interior, as he is passed affecting his department, issued paign fund, left for Guthrie, Okla. As-April 12 the rules and regulations to ef- sistant Treasurer Doolin will look after fectuate that law.

Everything Was Regular.

Hitchcock, in a letter which is and al- the law; you will know the limit." ways has been a public document, found He had asked, he said, that his resigthat it had complied fully with the law nation take effect immediately. As to and his rules, and therefore, April 14 whether Mr. Doolin, the assistant treasapproved its maps of location for pipe quirers to the gentleman in question. line, which it proceeded to build and The latter had nothing to say. which, by the by, has been able to furnish a means of transportation to millions of barrels of oil from Oklahoma, any paper, memo or letter of record in connection with the granting of this pipe line privilege which shows that President would show whether his resignation had Roosevelt had anything whatever to do been accepted by Mr. Bryan, whether with it. It is extremely probable that Mr. Bryan had suggested a successor and the wager was proposed and accepted. in the cause of a new law involving a a number of other matters in which pubmomentous question like this one Secretary Hitchcock conferred with the President before issuing his rules and regula-

"That is the custom, and a very proper custom, I know, of Secretary Garfield's brow in all cases of new and important legislation. Such conferences may possibly have led to a misunderstanding from cerned. Mr. Bryan declined to answer. which Gov. Haskell's claims that the Pres- That it had been, however, was inferred the chopper's stock went up. There has been enforced is of the character in ident ordered Mr. Hitchcock to grant the from Mr. Bryan's answer to the next were several of the party who offered to vogue in all modern quarantine measures. privilege might have arisen. I haven't question the slightest doubt that there were no been selected?' he was asked. orders of any description, and the best evidence of this is the telegram to the tive committee," came the hurried answer. New York World from Mr. Hitchcock in which he says that a statement of that other callers, so far as Mr. Haskell's case as he needs them. kind is an absolute falsehood. He, of Bryan, Mr. Haskell, Assistant Treasurer

A Knock for Haskell. "To resume then Mr. Hitchcock, and later Mr. Garfield, in allowing the exrectly in accordance with the law.

the face of it at least exactly the con- morning's work. He was not aware, he trary, as will be seen by noting the fol- said, that Mr. Haskell was under discuslowing facts.

"The constitution of Oklahoma, with the formation of which Gov. Haskell had John W. Tomlinson of the executive commuch to do, provided that certain defi- mittee; Josephus Daniels, chairman of the nite action must be taken by corporations press committee; Millard Dunlap, a bank- would finish well inside the schedule. before they should have the right of emi- er and old-time friend of the candidate. nent domain, among which requirements and John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of was the incorporation in the state of the national committee. Oklahoma and the filing of a list of the stockholders, officers and directors of the corporation.

When Attorney General West of Oklahoma found that the Prairie Oil and Gas Company was about to build a pipe line N. Haskell of the democratic national Justice Mills today denied the application which would cross public highways and committee, who resigned at an early hour of Harry K. Thaw for a jury trial to deprivate land, involving the exercise of today in Chicago, probably will not be termine whether or not Thaw is sane. the power of eminent domain, he brought made by National Chairman Mack for He promised to give Thaw a hearing be suit in equity to restrain the company by injunction from doing this, unless it complied with the clear mandates of the state constitution.

More About the Governor.

"The question at Issue is not, Should the pipe line be built? but, Should the com-(Continued on Second Page.)

Will Be a Scorcher.

'TISN'T QUITE READY YET

GIVES DEPARTMENT'S SIDE Peerless Leader and Treasurer Haskell Conferred Today.

THEN HASKELL HUSTLED HOME

Everybody's Face Is Padlocked, But Chairman Mack Is Trying to Pick a Successor.

Special Dispatch to The Star. CHICAGO, September 26.-W. J. Bryan flitted through Chicago this morning, but he had nary a word of comment to make The Interior Department to- for publication on the streaks of lightning that have illuminated the democratic political skies in the last few days. ing relations of former Secretary But he did have a promise to make, and that was that the President of the United Hitchcock with the issue of leases states most certainly would hear from authorizing the Prairie Oil and him in the immediate future, and in a way that it would require much of the Gas Company to lay pipe lines reserve stock in the administration ginger jar to make answer.

In other words, Mr. Bryan let it be known that he is blocking out a scorching reply to President Roosevelt, and that the partment, it is declared, show communication would incorporate all of the important matters that have developed recently. This communication will cock simply complied with an act not only include respects to Mr. Roosevelt for his recent statement, but it will of Congress authorizing the con- also deal with Mr. Haskell, Standard Oil, Mr. Hearst and Mr. Archbold, and it will other evidence that the President tional committee. In short, Mr. Bryan intends to catch up on all issues and con-

Bryan Mad, Reports Say.

Mr. Bryan was an early riser this morning. In fact he did not get very way, and added that the resignation would much sleep last night, for it was shortly be accepted when received. before midnight that he got into communication with Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma, mittee, and, according to reports, inti- erally commended. Mr. Mack will leave mated in strong language that his resig- for the west tonight. nation must be forthcoming instanter.

Mr. Bryan was at the Terre Haute end of the telephone and Mr. Haskell was in 26.-The actual preparation of his reply Chicago. Soon afterward in Unicago to the letter of President Roosevelt re-Mr. Haskell gave out his letter of resignation, and as Mr. Bryan's special car kell was begun by W. J. Bryan today on rolled into Chicago this morning at 6:47, the journey from Chicago to Madison. As and as he awoke and was dressed before yet Mr. Bryan is unable to state when the Illinois state line was crossed he of it will be completed. He positively renecessity was obliged to cut his rest fuses to discuss the Haskell case.

Mr. Bryan was met at the railroad station by Mr. Haskell, who had been accompanied by Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity bureau, and John E. Lamb, and all hopped into a waiting automobile, scarcely allowed the train to come terior Hitchcock and Secretary Garfield to a full stop, and hurried to the naconcerning the pipe-line privileges to that tional headquarters. They were closeted same company, I will state briefly and there nearly all of the two hours that definitely, without argument of any kind, Mr. Bryan was in the city, as he was en route to Madison, Wis., where he was scheduled to speak at noon.

Except for the statement that he was preparing a reply to President Roosevelt, ne declined to be interviewed, on the ground of lack of time. The other participants in the conference were equally uncommunicative.

Haskell Hustles Home.

After his talk with Mr. Bryan, Mr Haskell, to all intents and purposes no always obliged to do when any law is longer treasurer of the democratic cam- Moot Must Turn Growing Trees Into the routine until a treasurer is appointed. Mr. Haskell went to the train alone His hurried departure, he said, was due "The Prairie Oil and Gas Company ap- to the necessity of his presence at the plied even before the regulations were state capital Monday, when the state promulgated for a pipe line privilege, and tax board meets. Asked if he would after the most careful consideration Mr. prosecute those who had made charges against him, he wrote in answer: "Read urer, would also resign, he referred in-When Mr. Haskell emerged from his conference with Mr. Bryan, and was besieged by newspaper men, he repeated his former tactics of requesting that all "It is absolutely impossible to find questions addressed to him be written. This was done and the Oklahomian retired to his room with a series of interlic interest has been aroused.

"Up to Mack," Says Peerless.

The weather was hot and when Mr. Bryan came out in a hurry to catch his several-quickly made great inroads into three years. train beads of perspiration stood on his Asked whether Mr. Haskell's resignation had been accepted so far as he was con-"Has a successor to Treasurer Haskell

"That is up to Mr. Mack and the execu-Although Mr. Bryan had a number of is considered the conferees were Mr. course, knows better than anybody else. Loolin, James W. Riley, who is Mr. Mack's secretary, and John E. Lamb.

Lamblike Mr. Lamb.

Mr. Lamb, after the departure of Mr. tension of the line last April, acted di- Bryan, called for a few minutes at Treasurer Haskell's office. He was extremely Mr. Evatts and his guests was present "Gov. Hoskell's action, however, was on uncommunicative regarding details of the when Mr. Moot swung his ax into the sion at all.

Others who talked with Mr. Bryan were

Who'll Be Treasurer Now? NEW YORK, September 26 .- The selection of a treasurer to succeed Gov. Charles several days. The names of Col. Moses fore himself, Justice Mills. The date was C. Wetmore of St. Louis, chairman of the left to be fixed by counsel. finance committee; Mayor J. N. Adams of Buffalo and Edward F. Goltra of St. Louis are under consideration of the national chairman for the treasurership. Mr. Mack said today that he had received a surrection has been almost completely taining Haskell's resignation was on the peaceful.

National committeemen here say that the voluntary retirement of Gov., Haskell rassing sutuation, and his action is gen-Cholera Decides Manila Not to Candidate Prepares Answer. Celebrate Now. HARVARD JUNCTION, Ill., September relieves the committee of a very embar-

"The resignation was not addressed to me," he said. "The question of its acceptance and of a successor lies with

The first speech of the day was at Woodstock, Ill., where, to a big crowd, he repeated his statement, often made, that it no longer was considered by the refrom the rear platform of a train. His

WOOD-CHOPPING CONTEST ON

CRACK AXMAN TRYING TO WIN

COOLIDGE'S MONEY.

Five Cords of Kindling

by Sundown.

BOSTON, Mass., September 26.-A big party of New York, Boston and Washington men is today witnessing a unique contest at Windsor, Vt., to decide a bet of $6,000 between Maxwell Evarts, son of the late United States senator, and L. F.

Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson railway, and L. A. Coolidge, assistant secretary of the Treasury, at Evarts wagers that Edwar . Loot of Special Dispatch to The Star.

Washington.

first tree.

from standing trees.

had been selected for the trial.

Moot is attended by his son. The youth trees and chopped and split the greater part of the wood-about a cord and a Great secrecy had been observed as to the place where the contest would be

As the chopping progressed the location became known. Now a crowd of several

At noon Moot had more than half completed his task and said his muscle was as good as when he began, and that he

JUDGE TO EXAMINE THAW.

Denies Him Jury Hearing to Deter-

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., September 26 .-

Korean Insurrection Crushed.

SEOUL, Korea, September 26.-The in-· mine His Sanity.

hundred is watching the event.

held. As a result hardly any one except remarks were cut short by the train

Mr. Mack.

pulling out.

garding the charges against Gov. Has-FESTIVITIES UPON RETURN

> Criticisms of Health Authorities Referred to Washington.

DEFENSE MADE BY DR. HEISER

publicans undignified to appeal for votes Director of Public Health, Now Here, Says Approved Measures

Are in Force.

MANILA, September 26 .- The formal welcome to the battleships of the Ameri- EIGHT can fleet has been postponed on account of the presence of cholera in this city. The committees in charge of the reception, after a conference with Governor General Smith and prominent business men, today decided it would be best to cancel all preparations for the celebra-

November. In honor of the fleet's presence, however, it was concluded to carry out the water parade on the day of arrival. Governor General Smith is advising the tion until the fleet returns from Japan in authorities at Washington of the development of strong criticism directed against the health authorities of the city because of the fact that Manila was not protected by quarantine. Closer protection of districts where cholera has claimed the greatest number of victims, is urged. It is probable an investigation will be

Dr. Heiser Defends Course.

Weathersfield will, between sunrise and sunset, chop and split five cords of wood Dr. Victor G. Heiser, director of public health of the city of Manila, who is in The wager originated at a banquet at | Washington attending the sessions of the Washington recently. Mr. Evarts told tuberculosis congress, declared, today, them of Moot's ability. On being doubted, in reference to criticisms regarding the protection of Manila against cholera, that The chopping began at 5:52 o'clock this the health authorities in that city were morning, the time at which the sun rose, using the same precautions at this time and will conclude at 5:50 o'clock this for the suppression of the disease as those evening. Moot's sturdy axes-he is using so successfully availed of in the past the standing trees of basswood which

Marine quarantine was established promptly against all the cholera-infected With the report that Moot recently places in the archipelago.

chopped and split and piled a cord of wood in less than an hour and a half, added, "was not practicable. Such as bet large amounts that he would win to-"This included the inspection of all trains arriving in the city. There were not enough troops in the islands to mainkeeps the axes sharp and hands them and tain vigilant measures of inspection of the splitting wedges to his father as fast

At 8 o'clock Moot had cut down six fection. We don't know positively where it originates. "I am quite sure there is no real good no stock.

> authorities of the city in their treatment of the disease. "Last spring cholera appeared in the for a time were apathetic in efforts to October 3. stamp it out. Later, urged on and assisted by the central government, they succeeded in suppressing it. "I don't think the present recrudescence to the cases at Pangasinan.'

BINGHAM FOR GOVERNOR. Heads New Hampshire Democratic

Ticket. CONCORD, N. H., September 26.-The kee at Spindle Rock today and the divdemocratic state convention, held here ers immediately set to work patching up and telegram had been read from Judge aground Wednesday. Bingham positively refusing the place.

the abolition of the lobby and the free pass, increase in railroad taxes, direction of railroad commissioners, direct primaries, publication of campaign contributions and initiative and referendum.

ASSAULTED IN HIS OFFICE.

Norfolk Bank Cashier Victim Former Employe's Attack.

NORFOLK, Va., September 26.-Hugh M. Kerr, cashier of the National Bank of Commerce, the largest financial institution in this city, was assaulted in his office yesterday afternoon by John Wilson, to whoever does bury us. twenty-nine years old. The latter was with carrying a concealed weapon, a load- funeral expenses." ed pistol being found in his pocket. Kerr was struck several times on the head and slightly injured. The fight was ended only after several men overpowered Wilson is a former employe of the bank and is a member of a good family. Kerr, t is said, will not prefer a charge against

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN BERLII

OTHERS SERIOUSLY HURT IN CRASH ON "L" ROAD.

Most of the Deaths Resulted From Contact With Third Rail-Happened in Triangle.

BERLIN, September 26 .- Two trains collision early this afternoon. As a result eighteen persons are dead, eight seriously and many others slightly inured. Most of the deaths resulted from ontact with the electrified rails.

The accident was caused by a misplaced signal. One of the cars, which was crowded with passengers, was hrown to the street forty feet below and shattered. The greatest mortality was n this car. The police were quickly at the dead and wounded was begun. Ambulances were summoned and waited close to the scene of the wreck while the injured were brought out. Then each wagon with its suffering passenger hastened away to a hospital. The collision occurred in the heart of the eastern commercial district, upon what is known as "the triangle," a notable piece of railroad construction, where three double-tracked lines cross. model of this crossing was exhibited at the St. Louis exposition. Among the dead is Richard Wendt, an

BUFFALO BROKER ARRESTED. "Absolute land quarantine," the doctor | Held in $5,000 Bail for Grand Larceny, First Degree.

has been issued for the arrest of Clar- of disproving the charges against the ence DeWitt, the New York member of young man. the firm of Meadows, Williams & Co., as a case of blackmail. On that belief it brokers, who suspended recently. As in will be more vigorously fought by the atthe case of Harold G. Meadows, for torneys for the defendants. all persons coming into the city of Manila whom a warrant was issued yesterday, the action was taken on complaint of "Cholera appears to be endemic in Ma- William E. Sifverthorne, who alleges nila. The present visitation may be due that last May he paid the firm $72,012 false. I never paid out a dol'ar and canto the lighting up of an old focus of in- for 700 shares of United States Steel preferred, for which he got a receipt but port.'

ground for any criticism of the health Harold G. Meadows was taken into custody today as he entered the office of Three Persons Hurt and Property his counsel. In police court he pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny, province of Pangasinan, about 100 miles first degree, and was admitted to bail in from Manika. Local authorities there $5,000. Meadows will have a hearing of the disease in Manila is due in any way Force of Men From Newport Sets to Work Patching Hull.

STRANDED CRUISER YANKEE.

NEWPORT, R. I., September 26 .- a detachment of thirty seamen gunners equipped with diving outfits and seventy naval apprentices from the Newport torpedo station went to the stranded cruiser Yan-dates and demand, among other things, day.

JOIN GIRL IN DEATH CRASH CAME IN FOG

Brother and Mother Kill Them- Two Steamers Come Together. selves in Their Grief.

Burial in Adjoining Room.

and Most Affectionate and Lovable of Sisters." NEW YORK, September 26.-The bodies

Brooklyn, today.

of Miss Ella Foden. in white and apparently laid out for the Commonwealth. The bow of the Fall burial. The brother and mother were River liner was smashed above the water found dead in an inner room, on a bed, line in the collision, but the damages were over their heads. woman might have been shot. It was fully loaded. Examination then seemed to show that the girl had bled profusely through the mouth apparently from a hemorrhage of the lungs. Had Hard Work to Die.

On the bed with the bodies of the mother and son were three bottles which evidently had contained a mixture of sank. chloroform and whisky. Copious draughts having failed to kill them, they had completely saturated the bed covering with the drug and then smothered themselves under it

A letter written by Edwin left no doubt as to a double suicide plot between him and his mother. It was addressed to nobody, bore no date, and was as follows: "My sister Ella, the best and sweetest, and most unsefish, affectionate and lovable of sisters, is dead. This world without her seems unendurable. "I will follow her. And so will my mother. She would be too exhausted to live alone. "My mother's brothers, Christopher, John and Philip Wentzel of Parma, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, will bury us. Please notify them Bequest to Whoever Buries Him. "I wish them to have all my effects, will bury us. If not, I wish them to go

"There is $31.84 in the pocket of the locked up at the police station, charged clothes I am wearing to go toward the

Each paragraph of the letter, which was written in an unsteady hand, was signed by Foden. Neighbors had not seen any of the family around for several days. They had kept much to themselves during all the time they had lived among them. So nothing was known concerning their Foden was believed to be a newspaper

SMITH-DIETRICH NUPTIALS.

Corporation Commissioner to Wed Ex-Senator's Daughter Tuesday. Special Dispatch to The Star.

BOSTON, Mass., September 26.-The little town of Farmington. Conn., is all agog over the elaborate preparations there for the wedding, next Tuesday, of Miss Gertrude Dietrich, daughter of ex-Senator Charles Dietrich of Hastings, Neb., and Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations at Wasihngton.

A dispatch from Hastings announced on the Berlin elevated railroad were in that the wedding would occur today. This was corrected by Mr. Smith, who says the ceremony will not occur until Tuesday. The Dietrichs arrived at Farmington yesterday. Immediately the preparations for the affair were given an added im-

It is planned to make the ceremony the biggest social event of the year in Connecticut. Guests will be present from New York, Washington and Nebraska. Mr. Smith is well known throughou New England, particularly in Connecticut, where he has been in business. He was the scene, and the work of extricating at one time a member of the Hartford city government and is reputed to be

BLACKMAIL, SAYS ELKINS.

Declares He Never Paid $100,000 to Louise Lonsdale, Who Sues Son. WHEELING, September 26 .- The allegations made in her deposition by Miss Ada Louise Lonsdale of New York in a breach of promise suit against Blaine Elkins, son of United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins, which was filed this week in the federal court at Philippi for $100,-000, are denied at Halliehurst, the home of the Elkins family at Elkins. Today active preparations were made by young Elkins to contest the suit. Lawyers Fred O. Blue and William Baker BUFFALO, September 26 .- A warrant have been retained. They are confident The suit is branded by Senator Elkins

Senator Elkins today made the following statement:

not account for the origin of the re-

STORM HITS FLORIDA TOWN.

Damaged at West Palm Beach. WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., September 26.-Three persons were injured and considerable property damage done by a whirlwind which swept in from the sea and passed over the town. The injured are Mrs. Potter and her small son, who were blown down on the Casino porch, and a colored hostler at a stable, which was demolished.

Trees were stripped and several houses blown from their foundations.

Officers Pursue Kidnapers of Boy. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., September 26. -A woman, heavily veiled, and a man in deal has been concluded by which the yesterday, nominated George H. Bingham as far as possible that portion of her hull an automobile kidnaped Theodore state of Massachusetts acquires the exof Manchester for governor, after a letter which was torn when the cruiser ran Thomas, jr., son of a well known Leaven- tensive property of the Shirley Shakers The conditions of the past week con- yesterday afternoon, and, placing him in as an industrial reform school. Four presidential electors were chosen, tinued today, the fog being even denser an automobile, drove off hastily in the Missouri state line.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday. Light variable winds.

in Long Island Sound.

CORPSES FOUND IN BED FOREIGN VESSEL FOUNDERS

Body of Beloved One Laid Out for Passengers Thrown From Berths by Force of Collision.

COULD NOT LIVE WITHOUT HER PANIC IS NARROWLY AVERTED

"My Sister Ella, Best and Sweetest Fall River Liner After Sending Norwegian Vessel to Bottom Pro-

NEW YORK, September 26.-The of Ella and Edwin Foden and of their steamer Commonwealth, newest and largmother, Mary Foden, were found in their est of the Fall River line's sound steamapartment at No. 258 Greene avenue, ers. arrived at this port today after colliding with and sinking the Norwegian The mother and son evidently had com- freight steamer Volund in a dense fog off mitted sunicide together in their grief over Race Rock at the eastern entrance to the death from apparently natural causes Long Island sound this morning. The Volund's officers, the captain's wife and The body of the girl was found dressed crew were rescued and brought here on together, with the bed clothes pulled not considered serious. The collision took place at 1:30 a.m. A strong odor of choloroform pervaded as the steamers were feeling their way he room. Search disclosed a revolver, through a thick fog. As the two vessels leading to the belief that the young came together the captain of the Volund rushed on deck and assisted his wife to climb upon the Commonwealth's bow, which had cut a great gash into the Volund's side.

Three members of the Volund's crew also climbed on board the Commonwealth. The steamers then drifted apart. The boilers of the Volund exploded and she While consternation reigned among the passengers on the Commonwealth, a volunteer crew of naval men bound from Newport to Washington, commanded by Quartermaster Webber, manned one of he Commonwealth's cutters, while the Commonwealth's crew manned two other cutters and picked up the captain and eleven men from the Volund, who were clinging to pieces of wreckage.

One Member of Crew Hurt. One member of the Volund's crew was injured, which constituted the only casualty. After two hours' delay the Com-the members of the vessel's crew and in Capt, Williamson's examination of the damage sustained by the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth and the Volund came together with tremendous force. Nearly every passenger on board the former was thrown from his berth by the force of the impact and for a time there was nearly a panic. The officers and crew finally succeeded in reassuring the passengers, however, and quiet was restored before the Commonwealth proceeded slowly toward New York under her

BAPTISTS RAP CANNON.

Condemnatory Resolution.

BLOOMINGTON, September 26. - The Baptist Association, made up of central Illinois churches, adjourned here today after passing the following resolution condemning Speaker Cannon:

"Resolved, That we condemn the course of Speaker Cannon in refusing to let the Littlefield bill come before the House, and that we use all lawful means to prevent the election of Mr. Cannon to the office of

NOTABLES BACK FROM EUROPE.

and Prince Bearn Among Arrivals.

no statement.

Special Dispatch to The Star. in the campaign. Mr. Storer would make

Gov. Francis said he had been motoring n France, England and Scotland, and had cut off his vacation trip on account of the death of his brother-in-law. He said he expected to take an active part in the campaign from now on.

Other passengers were Prince de Bearn et Chalais, secretary of the French embassy at Washington, D. C.; M. A. Benziger, painter; ex-Senator W. A. Clark and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, mother of the congressman.

THOUSANDS MARCH IN CHICAGO Annual Exhibition of Strength by

CHICAGO, September 26.-Temperance hosts paraded the streets of Chicago to-"The report that at any time I paid this day in what was intended to be an anwoman or any other woman $100,000 is nua! exhibition of the strength of the foes of liquor. Thousands of marchers were in the parade, which traversed the downtown streets. Churches of almost every denomination were represented and contributed almost their entire local strength, the Good Templars and other temperance organizations had thousands of members in line and scores of prominent clergymen of the city acted as officers of the parade. Several of the temperance organizations had elaborate floats, while a score of bands were scattered among the march-

PASSING OF SHAKER COLONY.

Buildings Near Lancaster. LANCASTER, Mass., September 26 .- A.

The resolutions adopted indorse the than before. The work of lightering the direction of Kansas City. Officers have ings and 620 acres of land. Only one started in pursuit and will try to intertelegram from Chicago that a letter con- crushed and the entire country is now democratic national platform and candi- cargo of the cruiser was continued to- cept the automobile before it crosses the colony of Shakers which once flourished in the community.

monwealth proceeded on her way to this Following the collision, Capt. Williamson ordered the wireless operator to send a general message of distress along the sound, and within an hour five vessels such as they are, which I leave, if they had answered and volunteered their assistance. The steamers Maine, Providence and Priscilla stood by the Commonwealth until she started on her journey at 4:30 a.m., assisting in caring for own steam.

Central Illinois Association Passes Special Dispatch to The Star.

Speaker of the House.'

The Storers, Former Gov. Francis

NEW YORK, September 26.-Among the passengers who arrived this morning on board the steamer La Provence from Havre were Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy Storer and D. R. Francis, former Governor of Missouri. All were intensely interested in President Roosevelt's recent participation the Temperance Hosts.

ers. Spectators lined the streets through which the parade passed.

Massachusetts Acquires Land and worth man, from the grade school here in this town and Shirley. It will be used The property consists of twenty build-

The Evening Star, with the Sunday morning edition, is delivered by carriers, on their own account, within the city at 50 cents per month: